

Three Gridders From Pahoee On Mythical Eleven

Stokes Smith, husky Blue Devil fullback, was the only Pahokee High School football player placed on the 1944 Indian River all conference first team and oddly enough Stokes was given a berth at right tackle instead of fullback which was his regular position.

Salvatore, Donald Harrington and Billy Bridges were chosen for the all-conference second team. Harrington, Pahokee's mainstay at left guard, was also miscast by being placed at halfback position.

and Salvatore who always played at right end, was switched to left end in the mythical set-up.

The 1944 Indian River All-Conference teams chosen by votes of the various coaches are as follows:

ONE FRIEND TO ANOTHER

"As good a friend . . . as the good old city knew, or any other good old city, town or borough, in the good old world."—A Christmas Carol.

These words of Charles Dickens express exactly what this newspaper tries to be to the people of this community.

Because it is during the season of Christmas that the strength of friendship is most evident we choose now as the time to express our resolve to continue to be worthy of the friendship you have shown us.

In turn we wish for you the most Merry Christmas you have ever had. Despite the anxiety and worry which the war has brought to many of our homes in the past year, we urge you to remember that the bells of Christmas were long before the warriors of wrong rose up and they will be ringing still when the scars of this generation's conflict are healed and forgotten.

Make faith in such thought your closest companion during this Christmas season. Let friendship and faith then keynote our Christmas this year.

With such solid foundations our wish for you is certain to become reality—

A MERRY CHRISTMAS

Christmas JOY TO ALL 1944

THAT clatter out on the porch means Santa Claus . . . or maybe it's only Uncle Joe in his annual role of St. Nicholas.

Yes, there is a Santa Claus, and there will always be a Santa Claus in the good old U.S.A.

We wish for you and your family this season of 1944-45 a typical American Christmas.

Christmas GREETINGS

THE nearness of Yuletide is unmistakable. Whether snow festoons the fir trees or whether earth still awaits its mantle of white, woods and fields, city and town breathe Christmas and its spirit of kindness.

We sincerely hope that the Christmas season of 1944 will be richer for you, fuller, and more satisfying than for many a year, and thank you for twelve months of very pleasant relations.

BIBLE CLASS

A most cordial invitation is extended to all visitors and service men to attend Sunday's session of The Men's Fellowship Bible Class, at 9:45 in The Lion's Club building. A detailed interpretation of the Biblical account of the birth of Christ will be presented by the teacher, Rev. C. A. Moberg. Carols will be sung. The Class quartet will again feature.

CARD OF THANKS

I wish to thank my many friends for their kindness during this good year of 1944. I have been employed by several good folks during the year and I trust that my work has been satisfactory. It has been a pleasure to work with these folks and I sincerely hope that in the future I may be able to serve them again. I wish each and every one a Merry Christmas and a prosperous New Year.

Neil Kennen Has Birthday Party

Mrs. Charlie Kennen gave a party Saturday afternoon for her son, Neil, in celebration of his ninth birthday anniversary. Guests played games at the Kennen home then went to the Prince Theatre to see a cowboy thriller after which they returned to the house for refreshments. The hostess was assisted in the serving of refreshments by Mrs. C. F. McQuig.

Those attending were: Roy McQuig, Bobby Schroder, Tommy and Larry Elliott, Carlton and Maureen Miel, Calvin Padgett, Harry Lewis, Edmund and Emma Lou Wagner, Louis and Jon Pope, Chuck and Pat Elliott, Don Adams, Jimmy Rosale, Buford Justice, Joann, Jean and Judy Platt, Marie Sapp and Anita Kennen.

"A BETTER HOPE"

With our service men supremely fighting that you and I might have a better world in which to live, with the government urging us to buy bonds that in the future we might have better homes and conveniences, with nearly all our activity directed toward better things, I believe it fitting to pause and consider among all these hopes "A Better Hope."

We do well to preserve, pursue, and promote those things which shall build us and make our nation strong; we do well to do those things which shall make this world a better place in which to live; we do well to invest in the future—but, my friends, we do Excellent to Invest in Eternity. All of us must face it; why not live it now, for have you ever realized that Eternity does not begin just when we choose to face the fact of our soul's immortality? If there is an Eternity, and I believe in it, it began with Genesis 1:1.

Man does not decide to become eternal; man is eternal. We do not make ourselves eternal; we are made eternal. How foolish then for us to establish all our hopes in this world; we ought to lay hold on a Hope that can carry us across the abyss of this life's span and take us through the years of all time. Let us lay hold of a Hope whose manifestation has never been unfulfilled or disappointing. May we not let loose of a hope for a better world, but rather standing on that hope let us reach to Him who alone can make our foundation secure.

Twas He Whom angels heralded should bring peace to all men; 'twas He Whom prophets promised would deliver; 'twas He Who appeared some thirteen centuries ago and brought with Him the Heaven to which you and I may ascend. What more appropriate deed can we do in this great Christmas season than lift our hearts to God in sincere and fervent thanks for "A Better Hope." He abides today as the only Hope of all mankind, as the only Hope for a world not in sin, God gives His Son to us that we might have abundant life; how dare we let another moment pass that we would not take Him as our own?

"This shall be the sermon subject at the Canal Point Baptist Church this coming Sunday morning at 11:00 o'clock. Won't you come out and worship with us?" A warm welcome awaits you, whether you are saint, backslider or lost. "A Better Hope" is a sermon for us all.

when beaming faces tell that Christmas is very, very near, we are reminded again of the supreme value of friendship. He who has no friends, though he may have amassed

We have many friends in this area—friends who have become friends during this past year. These friendships are a great source of pride and happiness to us.

To all these friends we wish a very Merry

Merry Christmas and Happy New Year

This is not a trite expression in an effort to send you a greeting at this happy Christmas time. On the contrary, it is a greeting of genuine fellowship, good wishes and enduring faith.

Palm Beach County is one of the most favored counties of the nation. As much as we would like to let the lump come up in our throat and give way to our feeling, we will not be true to those fine boys if we do not keep the faith. All our boys want to get back to Palm Beach County and have Christmas at home once again.

Let's keep the faith while they fight. When they all come back, let's have the greatest Christmas any county in America ever had. Let's every family in Palm Beach County that had a son in the service have a picnic in Wright Field and really have a Merry Christmas. If you like this idea, drop us a line.

Friendliness
WELL BECOMES A BANK

We haven't escaped the impact of war. We, too, have more work to do, more patriotic duties to perform, less help to handle everything. But we haven't "war nerves". Perhaps that's because each and every one, on our staff, old and new, knows that "Friendliness well becomes a bank" has been our motto, and more than a motto, through other, difficult times. Our friendliness has its roots in wide-spread community acquaintance, which makes it natural, sincere, spontaneous. We hope you'll feel its warmth in all our dealings. If by chance some of today's unfortunate attitude of indifference should creep in, we want to be the first to know about it!
